When clients turn to your store for their love of aesthetics, you ensure their experience is equally enchanting. Your efforts ensure that they stay longer on each visit, and keep returning to your store for more!

But, is the beverage you serve to your clients a constant source of embarrassment? Are machine-made teas and/or powder-milk coffees doing justice to your image?

D'lecta presents to you "Milke" - the first ever real milk liquid creamer in India! An unbeatable combination of style, convenience, and taste which adds that extra bit to your beverage, and in turn to your image!

Milke offers a truly premium beverage experience

- Convenient to store and easy to handle
- Easy to make without using expensive real estate
- Helps serve a beverage quickly

So easy to make your favourite beverage

1 Pour hot water in a cup

2 Add instant coffee or tea bag

3 Pour Milke

4 Add sugar to taste

So, go on and be the first to offer this amazing beverage experience to your clients, and see it enhance your image.

And that's not all. Milke is a first of a kind product, that offers the following benefits to the modern Indian consumer:

No added preservatives

Aseptically packed for longer shelf life

No refrigeration required

No boiling required

Adulteration-proof

No wastage, No spillage
